

Important Keyboard Shortcuts for Terminal

Keyboard Shortcut	Description
Ctrl + Alt + t	Open terminal
Ctrl + Shift + t	Open new tab
Alt + tab_no.	Switch to open tab with tab_no. (ex.- Alt + 2)
Ctrl + l	Clear the screen
Cursor Movement
Ctrl + b	Move cursor one character to the left
Ctrl + f	Move cursor one character to the right
Ctrl + Left Arrow	Move cursor one word to the left
Ctrl + Right Arrow	Move cursor one word to the right
Alt + b	Move cursor one word to the left
Alt + f	Move cursor one word to the right
Ctrl + a / Home	Move cursor to start of the line
Ctrl + e / End	Move cursor to end of the line
Copy &amp; Paste
Ctrl + u	Cut everything from line start to cursor
Ctrl + k	Cut everything from the cursor to end of the line
Alt + d	Cut the current word after the cursor
Ctrl + w	Cut the current word before the cursor
Ctrl + y	Paste the previous cut text
Alt + y	Paste the second latest cut text
Alt + Ctrl + y	Paste the first argument of the previous command
Alt + . / _	Paste the last argument of the previous command
History
Up / Down Arrows	Move through your last used commands.
Ctrl + p	Move to the previous line
Alt + n	Move to the next line
Ctrl + s	Search
Ctrl + r	Reverse search
Ctrl + j	End search
Ctrl + g	Abort search (restores original line)
Alt + r	Restores all changes made to line
!!	Execute the last command in history
!xxx	Run the last command in history starting with xxx (replace x with the command of your choice)
!n	Execute the nth command in history
Completion
Tab	Auto-complete a name
Alt + ?	List all possible completions
Alt + *	Insert all possible completions